Kearney Celebrates 150 Years!

As the Kearney community gears up to celebrate its 150th birthday, MONA is preparing to join in the Sesquicentennial festivities by hosting a one-day community mural project. We've enlisted the help of muralist David Manzanares, an Oaxacan indigenous artist who currently resides in Omaha. Since 2014, his work has been enriching public spaces and communities with murals about individual and collective identities, the human experience, and migration.

On Saturday, June 24th, community members of all ages are invited to participate in the creation of the temporary mural on MONA's construction fence line at the corner of Central Avenue and 24th Street. Manzanares' goal for the project is to celebrate the Kearney community and inspire a sense of belonging for all.
